- e) It was resolved that the Litter Bin by the telephone box in Deenethorpe be moved to the Village Green steps.

Cllr Coombs took over as Chair for this part of the meeting.

- f) The members of the Public outlined their concerns about the Village Clean Up especially the lack of communication from the Parish Council & Deene Estate along with taking out a scrub which may have had an impact on a bat route, although it does look better it has opened the area up to views of the A43 along with the noise from the road. Concern was also raised about a tree being removed, Cllr Coombs explained that there will be two trees planted in place of the tree as it was leaning over the road with the risk of falling over the road. It was suggested that in order to move this forward that a meeting be held on the Village Green on Monday 8th starting at 18:00, this was agreed by everyone present and the Clerk agreed to notify the residents by e-mail. Lessons have been learnt by the Parish Council and the Clerk, improvements to communicate with the residents will be made.
